My dear friend
Your kind letters were both received
by the same
post and I hope soon to hear from you have you a very

In coming here
with Mr Thompson
& Mr Wendell
Garrison & your charming Lucy.

It was very stupid
of me not to think of the probability of your son being with you but I never die.

& when I once questioned me about it I assumed
- but that he was in New York! I cannot imagine how I got the impression he probably misunderstood something that was said when I inquired of him. I need not say how glad we are to know that he is at Roxbury & that we may

hope to see him
here. - With kind regards to all

I remain affly

Caroline Weston,

Nov 5, 1866.
